Lawrence Tang Fan (1954-2022) was born in San Francisco, California, on September 9, 1954. He was a proud 1972 graduate of Lowell High School and received his degree in economics from the University of California Berkeley in 1976. After heading to the Midwest to earn his master's degree at Western Illinois in 1978, he worked at LaSalle University in the sports information department. Lawrence returned to the Bay Area when he accepted the Sports Information Director position at San Jose State in 1980.

Sports were a constant in Lawrence's life. A lifelong San Francisco Giants and San Francisco 49ers fan (how appropriate), he talked fondly of taking the buses to see games at Kezar Stadium with his brother, Stephen. His father was a 49ers season ticket holder until his death, even picking out his seats at Levi's Stadium. Lawrence and his brother continued this tradition as they remained ticket holders.

Serving in the SJSU Athletics Department for 42 years, Lawrence was a champion in representing San Jose State to local, state and national media. He put the Spartan student-athletes before himself and served the Bay Area media in many capacities including arranging interviews for all Spartan athletes and serving as the spokesman for the department.

One of his greatest achievements that he was proud to publicize happened on November 11, 2021, when he worked his 500th consecutive San Jose State football game.

Lawrence has been a great mentor to those who worked in the sports information/media relations/ strategic communications industry. He never forgot a face or a fact and treated everyone the same, whether you were the star guard on the basketball team, a walk-on on the women's water polo team, a national media member or a student reporter in your first semester.

His legacy will live on in everyone.

Credential Requests

Credentials are issued for news and editorial coverage on a case-by-case basis to those filing game stories, accredited members from established media outlets, and personnel assigned by the sports information office. Requests should be directed to Sky Kerstein, sky.kerstein@sjsu.edu. The credential recipient agrees to all conditions set forth by the University relating to conduct and print, video, audio, digital and photographic game coverage.

Football Press Box

The CEFCU Stadium press box is located on the 7th Street side of the stadium and is an open-air facility. Carry a jacket with you. The press box remains open three hours after each contest.

Football Game Day Parking

Media parking passes for home football games are issued by the athletics media relations office.

Football Telephone Lines & Wireless Internet

Nine telephone lines and wireless internet are available for the working media in the press box area.

Photographers

Credentials are issued to newspapers, wire services, video crews and team photographers. NCAA rules limit photographers to a wide area behind the restraining line around the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines.

Production Truck & Satellite Uplink Parking

Production truck and satellite uplink parking is on the 7th Street side of the stadium. Arrangements must be made to park a truck overnight inside CEFCU Stadium.

Radio Broadcasts

The radio broadcast booth for the designated official flagship station of the visiting team at CEFCU Stadium is Box A on the mezzanine level of the press box and has space for five working individuals. ISDN and regular telephone service are provided.

Scouts

Space limitations prohibit seating and standing in the press box for scouting purposes.

Statistics & Services

Game statistics, play-by-play accounts and post-game quotes are compiled and distributed. FAX service is available. A meal is available two hours before kickoff.

Team Practices

During the football season, the Spartans practice in the morning. In-person, post-practice interview opportunities with the student-athletes, generally, occur at approximately 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Please contact the media relations office in advance with an interview request. Brent Brennan will have his weekly media availability at 1 p.m. every Tuesday in the press conference room of the new SAC building.

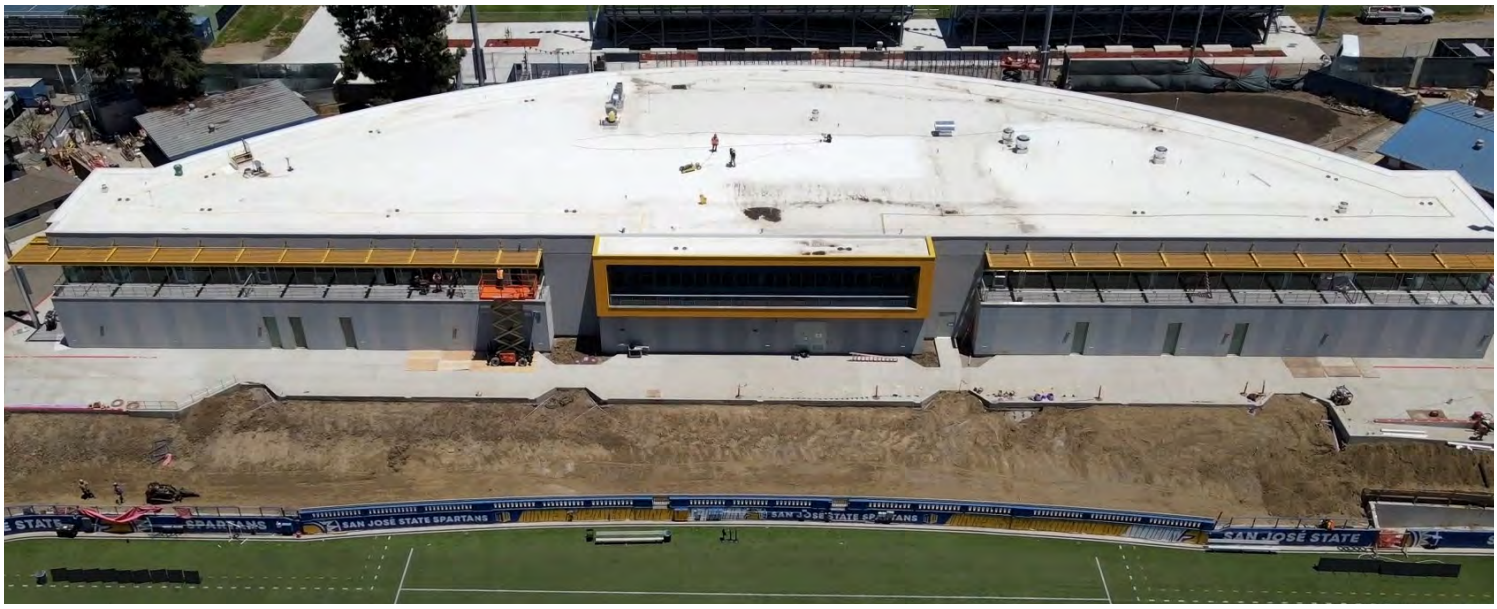
NEW SPARTAN ATHLETICS CENTER



The Spartans open the new Spartan Athletics Center on the east side of CEFCU Stadium prior to the 2023 season. The most tranformative capital project in SJSU history approached 70 million dollars and will make it's television debut Sept. 3 at 12:30 p.m. (PT) on CBS against Oregon State.

The two-story, 55,000-square foot building will be the new home for Spartan football and men's and women's soccer while providing amenities for all student-athletes on San José Sate's 22 athletics teams. It is critical to leveling the playing field in the areas of facilities and recruiting by providing access to first-class amenities including:

- Locker rooms, auditorium, dining facilities, player lounge
- Coaches offices, position meeting rooms, nutrition station
- Premium viewing and hospitality areas on game day

BRENT BRENNAN

Head Football Coach

Brent Brennan, a San Jose native and second-generation Spartan, enters his seventh season as the San José State University football head coach in 2023 and led the Spartans to a 7-5 record in 2022 including a trip to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Brennan is the first head coach to lead the Spartans to two bowl games since Claude Gilbert in 1986 and 1987. This was also the first time since 1987 the Spartans have gone to two bowl games in three seasons.

In 2022, SJSU led the country with only six turnovers during the regular season and +12 overall in the regular season which led the Mountain West Conference. Viliami Fehoko was named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and is the second under Brennan to do so following Cade Hall in

"Climb the Mountain" was a San José State University football rallying cry and a team slogan during its 2020 championship season.

2020. In the past three seasons, the Spartans have had 33 players with Mountain West honors and two defensive players of the year. Quarterback Chevan Cordeiro led the Mountain West with 3,251 yards passing and 23 throwing touchdowns. He also led the Mountain West with 31 total touchdowns. The 23 passing touchdowns were the most under Brennan in a season and the nine quarterback rushing touchdowns are a SJSU modern day record. Wide receiver Elijah Cooks ended the campaign with 10 touchdowns which is the most under Brennan and had 1,076 yards on the season. It was the second time under Brennan that a quarterback threw for over 3,000 yards and a wide receiver had over 1,000 yards receiving.

Brennan led San José State University to its first Mountain West championship in 2020 and first conference title since 1991.

The Spartans came off a 5-7 injury plagued season in 2021 in which backup quarterback Nick Nash was moved to wide receiver for a few games due to lack of healthy bodies. Two Spartans signed NFL contracts in the offseason in Jack Snyder (LAR) and Derrick Deese, Jr. (DET).

In 2020, Brennan led the Spartans to a 7-1 record with their first Mountain West Conference championship and first league title of any kind since sharing the 1991 Big West Conference championship and first outright crown since winning the Big West in 1990. The Spartans were back in the post-season bowl picture for the first time since 2015 and ranked in the final Associated Press poll since 2012 (24).

The Spartans ended the 2020 season at the Offerpad Arizona Bowl while playing the fifth toughest schedule of the season according to the NCAA.

San Jose State's .875 winning percentage from its 7-1 record was the third best in school history and best by a Spartan team since 1940. The Spartans were one of the last four undefeated teams in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2020. Brennan became the first San Jose State football coach to receive votes in the Associated Press' coach of the year balloting with three first place votes and a fifth-place finish. He was a semifinalist for the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the George Munger Coach of the Year Award conveyed by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia. Brennan has an overall record of 20-37 at SJSU.

In December 2016, Brennan became the eighth San José State football assistant coach to be named in the Spartans' head coach.

seasons under head coaches Dick Tomey and Mike MacIntyre

- Five wide receivers he recruited or coached are among the Spartans' top career pass receiving leaders with 146 or more receptions. Brennan coached San Jose State's only two players with at least 200 career receptions and 3,000 career receiving yards, Noel Grigsby and Chandler Jones. He also coached Josh Oliver, the Jacksonville Jaguars' 2019 third-round draft choice, and Ryan Otten, two of the top tight ends in school history.
- As the special teams coordinator, the 2008 Spartans were 20th nationally in kickoff returns and the 2007 team was ninth in punt returns.
- From 2011 through 2016, he coached receivers at Oregon State. Oregon State had one of the best passing offenses in the FBS ranking in the top-20 in 2011 (19th), 2012 (20th) and 2013 (3rd).
- Brennan coached All-American wide receivers Brandin Cooks and Markus Wheaton and former school career pass receiving leader James Rodgers. Cooks, the 2013 Biletnikoff Award winner signifying the nation's top wide receivers, completed three prolific seasons with the New Orleans Saints and signed with the New England Patriots during player free agency.
- Brennan began his coaching career at Woodside (Calif.) High School in 1996. He served as a graduate assistant at the University of Hawaii in 1998, at the University of Washington in 1999 and at the University of Arizona in 2000. From 2001 through 2004, he was the receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Cal Poly.

PERSONAL:

- As a college player, Brennan was a wide receiver for the 1991 through 1995 UCLA teams and lettered on the Bruins' 1993 Rose Bowl squad. He majored in history and graduated from UCLA in 1996.
- Brennan watched San Jose State home football games growing up. His dad, the late Steve Brennan, was an end who lettered in the 1967 season. Brent and his wife, Courtney, have two daughters, Blake and Casey, and a son, Scott.

MATT ADKINS

Tight Ends Coach

Matt Adkins finished his sixth season with the San José State University football staff in 2022 and his fourth as an assistant coach. From 2017 through 2019, he was a graduate assistant working with the offensive coaching staff and the tight ends specifically.

In 2022, his tight ends combined for seven touchdown receptions in 12 games and Dominick Mazotti was named to the Mountain West Honorable Mention team.

His 2020 tight end contingent included John Mackey Award semifinalist and current Detroit Lions tight end Derrick Deese, Jr., and Sam Olson. In 2019, he employed a trio of tight ends with diverse skill sets and each of the three had their most productive season at the major college level.

The 2018 season was different for the Spartan coach. Adkins coached first-team All-Mountain West tight end Josh Oliver, the 69th overall selection in the 2019 National Football League draft as a third-round choice of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

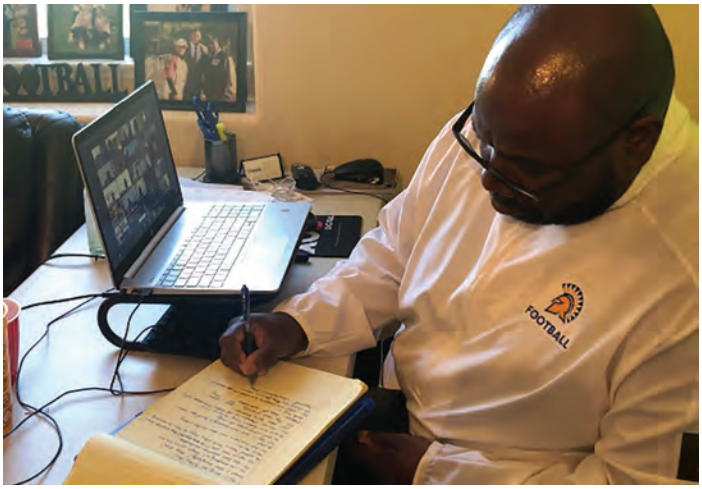
ALONZO CARTER

Assistant Head Coach
Running Backs Coach

Alonzo Carter finished his sixth season with the Spartans in 2022. He joined the San Jose State University football coaching staff in January 2017 as the running backs coach and added the duties of recruiting coordinator in 2018 and assistant head coach in 2021.

In 2022, Carter helped Kairee Robinson run for a career-high in yards (752) and touchdowns (10). Robinson ran for a career-best 148 yards on 24 carries and a touchdown against Hawai'i (11/26/22).



The 2020 calendar year was an eventful one for Carter beyond coaching a running back group that seamlessly fit into a balanced and productive offense that won a Mountain West championship and finished ranked 24 in the final AP poll.

During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic and up to the start of the delayed season, Carter became a national figure through his West Coast Zoom clinics - weekly sessions involving hundreds of football coaches.

2014 & 2015 Pacific 7 Conference
2012 & 2013 Bay 6 Conference
2007, 2008 & 2009 Alameda Contra Costa Athletic League
2005 & 2006 Oakland Athletic League & C.I.F. Oakland Section
2004 Oakland Athletic League
2001 Oakland Athletic League & C.I.F. Oakland Section

The concept originated from the desire to assist minority coaches with upward mobility in the coaching profession, the #BlackLivesMatter movement, and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on sports and society. Rooted in listening, learning and networking, the Spartan assistant coach relied on his professional connections and hosted engaging ZOOM calls lasting as long as seven hours either once or twice a week.

For his use of the Zoom technology platform, he received a 2020 Zoomtopia award for innovation - emphasis on diversity: bridging the divide.

In August, 2020, he was named to the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches (NCMFC) executive committee. The organization's goal is to identify and groom coaches of color, and create a list of coaching candidates for upward mobility. The NCMFC recognized his organizational commitment through his recruitment of more than 100 new members, providing mentoring, and mock interview sessions with its MVP Advocate Award for 2020. Since August 2020, he assisted 26 NCMFC members that advanced to coaching positions of greater responsibility or visibility. On campus, he serves as an advisor to the student-athlete groups, People of Change and #SJSpeaksUp.

The Spartans' running backs were productive and timely with their productivity during the 2020 Mountain West championship season. San Jose State averaged 4.5 yards per rush, its best average as a team in five years, and became the one of the first two teams in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) history to complete a season without losing a fumble by a ball handler on offense, defense and special teams. The running backs' pass protection proficiency also contributed to San Jose State finishing tied for eighth nationally in fewest quarterback sacks allowed per game.

Carter came to the Spartans with much fanfare as a highly successful local community college and high school football head coach and an unparalleled five years in the world of musical entertainment.

The Spartan assistant has 18 years of head coaching experience. His teams compiled a 129-69-3 win-loss record, won 11 league championships, three California Interscholastic Federation (C.I.F.) Oakland Section titles, and six post-season bowl games. He was named a league or conference coach of the year in seven of those seasons.

At Cal State Hayward, he and a group of friends answered an audition call, became backup dancers and rap artists, and toured extensively with iconic hip-hop musician MC Hammer. Carter was awarded a multi-platinum record signifying at least 10 million albums sold for "Please Hammer Don't Hurt Em."

Carter was inducted into the African American Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He holds coaching certifications from the American Football Coaches Association, the California Interscholastic Federation and the California Community College Athletic Association. Carter was selected to participate in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship program in 2017 with the San Francisco 49ers.

Carter's coaching career began as McClymonds High's track and field coach in February 1993. In his three years as the track and field head coach, McClymonds produced eight league and section champions. He also had responsibilities as a varsity assistant football coach.

KEVIN MCGIVEN

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks Coach

Kevin McGiven finished his fifth season in 2022 after he joined the San José State University football coaching staff in February 2018 as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2021, he added the duties of coaching the quarterbacks to his responsibilities. The Spartans have won 24 games and have been to two bowl games over the past four seasons under his guidance while they had only won seven games the three seasons before that.

In 2022, SJSU led the country with only six turnovers during the regular season and +12 overall in the regular season which led the Mountain West Conference. Quarterback Chevan Cordeiro led the Mountain West with 3,251 yards passing and 23 throwing touchdowns. He also led the Mountain West with 31 total touchdowns. The 23 passing touchdowns were the most under Brennan in a season and the nine quarterback rushing touchdowns are a SJSU modern day record. Wide receiver Elijah Cooks ended the campaign with 10 touchdowns which is the most under Brennan and had 1,076 yards on the season. It was the second time under McGiven that a quarterback threw for over 3,000 yards and a wide receiver had over 1,000 yards receiving.

In 2021, the Spartans had 28 touchdowns and 4081 yards and in 2020, he helped lead Nick Starkel and the Spartans to a Mountain West Championship with 2174 yards passing and 17 touchdowns in only eight games. The Spartans ended the 2020 season ranked 24 in the AP poll.

He has nurtured the college careers of quarterbacks Josh Love, the 2019 Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, and Starkel, the 2020 Mountain West football championship game Most Valuable Offensive Player and a second-team all-conference selection. In the national rankings, San Jose State was fourth in passing offense in 2019 and 19th in the same category in its 2020 championship season.

McGiven has 16 seasons of experience coaching quarterbacks and coordinating NCAA Division I offenses.

Throughout his career, he coached three of the top six passing yardage signal callers at Utah State (Chuckie Keeton, Kent Myers, Diondre Borel), and the career passing yardage leaders at Montana State (Denarius McGhee) and Weber State (Cameron Higgins).

McGiven began his coaching career in 1998 at Louisiana Tech as a student assistant coach after being a wide receiver on the 1996 and 1997 Bulldog teams. He accepted an assistant coaching position in 2001 at Mountain View High in Orem, Utah, and returned to the college ranks in 2002 as a graduate assistant on the Brigham Young University staff.

DERRICK ODUM

Associate Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator

Derrick Odum finished his sixth season as the Spartans' defensive coordinator in 2022, his tenure coordinating defenses is the second longest at San Jose State in the last 50 years. He added the title of associate head coach in February 2018. The Spartans have won 24 games over the last four seasons and have been to two bowl games in the past three seasons for the first time since 1988,

In 2022, he had his second Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year under him in Viliami Fehoko (Cade Hall was named in it in 2020). His defense led the Mountain West in sacks with 39 while playing in a conference low 12 games and finished fifth in the nation averaging 3.27 sacks per game. SJSU also finished averaging 7.4 tackles for loss per game which led the Mountain West and was good for eighth in the country. They also finished second in the conference with 14 interceptions and helped the Spartans to a conference regular season best +12 in turnover margin. Three players from the defensive side of the ball (Fehoko, Hall and Kyle Harmon) were named All-Mountain West First Team.

The 2020 season was a banner year for the San Jose State defense en route to the MW championship. For the first time in 30 years, the Spartans limited the opposition to less than 20 points a game and finished 15th nationally in scoring defense. San Jose State ranked in the top-10 among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams in red zone defense (9th) and quarterback sacks (10th). The Spartans ended the season ranked 24 in the AP poll.

The San Jose State defense's "big play" trait began showing itself in 2019 as the Spartans ranked ninth nationally in passes intercepted and in turnover margin. The Spartans' penchant for creating takeaways was most evident in its win that season at Arkansas with five interceptions as San Jose State defeated a Southwestern Conference (SEC) opponent for the first time in school history and was named the Reveal Suits Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Team of the Week.

His players have earned 35 all-conference awards and eight of them were selected in a National Football League draft.

JOSH OGLESBY

Offensive Line Coach

Josh Oglesby just finished his fourth season with the Spartans after he was named the San José State University offensive line coach in March 2020.

In 2022, the Spartans offensive line helped Quarterback Chevan Cordeiro lead the Mountain West with 3,251 yards passing and 23 throwing touchdowns. He also led the Mountain West with 31 total touchdowns. The 23 passing touchdowns were the most under Brennan in a season and the nine quarterback rushing touchdowns are a SJSU modern day record. Wide receiver Elijah Cooks ended the campaign with 10 touchdowns which is the most under Brennan and had 1,076 yards on the season. Running back Kairee Robinson ran for a career-high in yards (752) and touchdowns (10). Robinson ran for a career-best 148 yards on 24 carries and a touchdown against Hawai'i (11/26/22).

In his first season with the Spartans, his offensive linemen formed one of top pass protecting units nationally. Even with four different starting offensive lines in an eight-game season, San Jose State tied for eighth nationally yielding only 1.00 quarterback sacks per game. The Spartans also had their best rushing offense in five years averaging 4.5 yards a carry and 132.5 yards per game. Left tackle Jack Snyder became the first San Jose State offensive lineman in eight years to earn first-team all-conference honors. Snyder signed with the Los Angeles Rams in 2022.

At the University of Wisconsin, Oglesby was a 2011 first-team All-Big Ten honoree and an offensive lineman on the 2010 and 2011 Badgers teams that represented the Big Ten Conference in the Rose Bowl. Oglesby pursued a professional football career with Washington of the National Football League in 2012 before entering coaching.

SCOTT WHITE

Linebackers Coach
Special Teams Coordinator

Scott White just finished his fifth season at San Jose State University. In 2022, he continues coaching the linebackers and served as special teams coordinator.

In 2022, linebacker Kyle Harmon led the team with 102 tackles in only 12 games and was named All-Mountain West First Team. Defensively, the Spartans led the Mountain West in sacks with 39 while playing in a conference low 12 games and finished fifth in the nation averaging 3.27 sacks per game. SJSU also finished averaging 7.4 tackles for loss per game which led the Mountain West and was good for eighth in the country.

White first joined the Spartans in 2018 as a football staff analyst. For the 2019 season, he was promoted to linebackers coach. He added the duties of special teams coordinator in 2020.

White was one of 59 nominees for the annual Broyles Award in 2021 recognizing the top NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Division I assistant coach.

In 2021, White coached an inside linebacker group led by Kyle Harmon who led the country in total tackles (121) and was fourth nationally in tackles per game (11.0). In four of the team's first 11 games, San Jose State limited the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards. Opponents have rushed for eight touchdowns, 12th best among FBS teams and second fewest in the 12-team Mountain West.

As the special teams coordinator in 2021, San Jose State was tied for fourth nationally with four blocked kicks (combined field goal and point after touchdown attempts) and is tied for 12th in total blocks (combined blocked kicks plus punts blocked) with five. The Spartans' punt return coverage ranked 14th allowing only 3.36 yards per return. Opponents attempted to return just 11 of 63 punts that season and no return was longer than 15 yards. San Jose State ranked second in the Mountain West and 34th nationally in kickoff return coverage and was 33rd in net punting averaging 41.27 yards per punt. Punter Will Hart had a 44.1 yard per punt average prior to the November 25 regular-season finale hosting Fresno State.

Since taking over the linebackers, Ethan Aguayo was a 2019 second-team All-Mountain West selection and returning starter Kyle Harmon was a 2020 and 2021 first-team All-Mountain West pick.

He coached some of the nation's top linebackers at UCLA. Eric Kendricks, a 2019 first-team All-Pro with the Minnesota Vikings, was the 2014 Butkus Award and Lott Impact Trophy winner. In 2013, current Jacksonville Jaguars linebacker Myles Jack became the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to be named the conference's "Freshman of the Year" on offense and defense. Anthony Barr, the Minnesota Vikings' 2014 first-round draft choice, was a first-team All-America and finalist for the 2013 Butkus Award.

As a special teams coordinator, he oversaw the growth of UCLA kicker Ka'imi Fairbairn, the 2015 Lou Groza Collegiate Placekicking Award winner and current placekicker for the Houston Texans.

Was a four-year starter on the 2003 through 2006 University of Washington teams. He was a team captain and second-team All-Pac 10 Conference linebacker as a senior.

CHIP VINEY

Cornerbacks Coach

Chip Viney joined the San José State University football staff as the new defensive backs coach in February 2022.

In 2022, his defensive backs combined for nine interceptions and helped the Spartans achieve a Mountain West best +12 turnover margin in the regular season.

Viney had various roles with Sooner football over two tenures. The most recent stint was from 2018 through 2021 when he served in recruiting and team defense analyst roles. For the 2021 season, he was the director of player development and scouting analyst.

The Fresno, Calif., native also spent 2013 through 2016 at Oklahoma as a graduate assistant working with cornerbacks his first three seasons and was the Sooners' 2016 special teams analyst.

In his eight seasons with Oklahoma football, the Sooners won five Big 12 Conference championships and participated in the 2018 and 2019 College Football Playoffs, and the 2013 Bowl Championship Series (BCS).

In between his two tenures at Oklahoma, Viney was at the University of Nevada in 2017 coaching cornerbacks.

He earned letter awards for the 2008, 2009, and 2010 Bruin teams and was named its scout team player of the year as a freshman. Viney completed his college career at New Mexico State in 2011. He then played one season of Arena Football for the 2012 San Jose SaberCats.

CULLEN CARROLL

Head Coach of Athletic Performance

Carroll was the Director of Football Sports Performance at Stanford for the previous four seasons and was a part of Coach David Shaw's Football staff with the Cardinal for nine seasons overall.

During his time as Director of Football Sports Performance at Stanford, Carroll was directly responsible for the comprehensive student athlete development of the Cardinal football roster, with a philosophy centered around injury prevention, athletic performance enhancement and mental discipline training. Additionally, Carroll was responsible for spearheading the implementation of Sport Science Initiatives with the football program.

In the past three NFL Drafts, Carroll saw eight of his athletes selected by NFL organizations, with a projected 5-6 more this upcoming NFL Draft. Overall, Carroll has seen 30 of his athletes selected in the NFL draft during his time at Stanford, including 4 in the first round.

Prior to being named Director in 2019, Carroll was elevated from an Assistant Football Sports Performance Coach to the Assistant Director of Football Sports Performance in 2017 by his mentor, Shannon Turley. During that span the program won the Pac-12 North, earned a berth in the Pac-12 title game, along with an Alamo Bowl appearance in 2017 and a Sun Bowl Championship in 2018.

As an Assistant Football Sports Performance Coach, Carroll contributed to the Cardinal winning a Foster Farms Bowl Championship in 2014, a Pac-12 Conference Championship in 2015, a Rose Bowl Game Championship in 2016 and the Sun Bowl Championship in 2017.

Carroll began his time with the Cardinal as an intern in 2014 and was quickly elevated to an assistant football sports performance coach during the 2014 Off-season.

Carroll also previously served as the Sports Performance Coach for both the Stanford men's swimming and men's gymnastics programs, while also assisting with the wrestling program. The men's swimming program earned back to back Pac-12 titles under Carroll's direction in 2016 and 2017.

Before coming to Stanford, Carroll assisted with all aspects of football sports performance at Wake Forest University in 2013. While at Wake Forest, Carroll also served as the head rugby performance coach.

A native of Petaluma Calif., Carroll holds a master's degree in Kinesiology from San José State University, and a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Willamette University, where he was an All-Northwest Conference linebacker. Carroll began his collegiate coaching career as a student assistant serving as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Willamette football program.

He is certified SCCC through the CSCCa, CSCS through the NSCA, and is CPR/AED/First Aid certified through the American Heart Association.

He and his wife, Kylie Carroll (Mulligan), live in Campbell.

SALVADOR DELGADO

Graduate Assistant

FLETCHER KELLY

Director of Player Personnel

Fletcher Kelly is entering his first season with the Spartans as the director of player personnel.

- Fletcher is from Homedale, Idaho
- Played four years of football in high school
- Graduated from Boise State and went on to work as a coach there
- While coaching at Boise State, he won two Mountain West Championships in 2017 and 2019

JAMES PEREZ

Strength & Conditioning Assistant Coach

James Perez started at SJSU in January of 2023. Perez came from Stanford where he was for four years with the last two seasons as Assistant Director of Football Sports Performance.

Perez was elevated to Assistant Director in 2021 after serving as the Associate Football Sports Performance for the Cardinal in 2019 and 2020.

Before coming to Stanford, Perez served as the top Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at Fresno State working with the Bulldog Football program. During his time in Fresno, the Bulldogs won the 2018 Mountain West Championship, 2018 Las Vegas Bowl, and finished the season 12-2 overall.

Prior to Fresno State, he spent the 2017 season with the Stanford football program while also assisting with the Cardinal Wrestling and Men's Swimming and Diving teams.

Perez also spent four years at Sacred Heart Schools in Atherton, California, and served as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach until being promoted to Director of Athletic Performance in 2016.

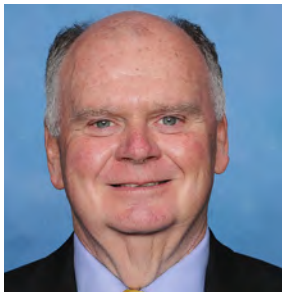
In 2011, Perez served as a volunteer assistant at Cal.

A native of Petaluma Calif., Perez holds a master's degree in Exercise Science (Sports Psychology) from California University of Pennsylvania, and a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Willamette University, where he was a two-sport athlete playing Football and Baseball.

He is C.S.C.S, FMS, AED and CPR certified and resides in Redwood City with his wife, Natalie, and their children Mila and Luca.

TERRY MALLEY

Football Analyst



Terry Malley is in his 11th season at San José State University and his fifth as a staff analyst. He previously coached the quarterbacks, running backs, tight ends, wide receivers and was the team's recruiting coordinator in his first six seasons.

Malley specializes in nurturing young players into meaningful contributors. His Spartans earned four all-conference honors, two freshman honorable mention All-America honors and set 14 school single-season and career records. Chandler Jones and Noel Grigsby, two of his wide receivers in 2011 and 2012, signed NFL free agent contracts in May 2014. Billy Freeman, the returning starter at tight end, was an honorable mention All-Mountain?West choice as a freshman during his San José State career.

Malley originally came to the Spartans in 2009 after spending 14 seasons with the San José SaberCats where he was regarded as one of the keenest offensive minds in Arena Football League history. In his 10 seasons as the team's offensive coordinator, San José won four Arena Football League championships, led the league in scoring four times and was second four other seasons.

With 37 years of coaching experience, Malley's coaching roots are in the Bay Area. Two-year stints at San José's Leland High (1976-77) and Moreau High in Hayward (1978-79) preceded five seasons (1980-84) as an assistant coach for legendary coach Pat Malley, his dad, at Santa Clara University, his alma mater. Terry was named head coach in 1985 and led the Broncos to a 47-39-1 win-loss record over eight seasons. Six of his eight teams were nationally-ranked among NCAA Division II schools.

Malley coached 27 all-conference players including long-time National Football League pros Brent Jones, a standout tight end for the San Francisco 49ers, and two-time Pro Bowl punter Bryan Barker. He was the Western Football Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, his first season, directing Santa Clara to an 8-2-1 record and a conference championship.

His first experience in professional football came in 1994 when he was named the Director of Football Operations for the SaberCats, an Arena Football League expansion franchise. Malley added the duties of General Manager in 1995. In 1999, he returned to the field as the offensive coordinator and retained his general manager responsibilities through 2006.

As a player, Malley was a quarterback, team captain and four-year letterwinner for Santa Clara during the 1972 through 1975 seasons.

LYLE MOEVAO

Football Analyst - OFFENSE

Lyle Moevao joined the San José State University football coaching staff as an analyst in June 2021. He will be working with the team's defensive personnel and coaching staff.

Moevao (pronounced Moy-vow) comes to the Spartans from the University of Northern Colorado where he was the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the 2020 season. During the spring 2019, he was the running backs coach for the San Antonio Commanders of the Alliance of American Football (AAF). Moevao was the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Lewis and Clark College for the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

The 2010 Oregon State graduate majored in sociology and was a quarterback on the Beavers football team during the 2006 through 2009 seasons. As a starting quarterback, Oregon State posted a 14-4 win-loss record and won the 2007 Emerald Bowl in San Francisco and the 2008 Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Moevao went on to play two seasons of professional football in France and Japan.

BEN THIENES

Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations

Ben Thienes is entering his sixth season with the Spartans. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in May 2020. Besides his role with the football program, Thienes is involved in the programming and planning of the Spartan Athletics Center facility project.

He was named SJSU's director of football operations in January 2017. During his professional career, he has been involved with eight teams to win a conference championship and/or participate in a post-season bowl game including the 2020 San José State University team. Thienes received the 2022 Football Scoop Operations Director of the Year Award presented by AstroTurf at the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) annual convention. The award encompasses the 2020 and 2021 seasons when the Spartans won the Mountain West championship in 2020 and the daily challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic locally, statewide, and nationally.

Thienes came to the Spartans after serving as the linebackers coach and director of player personnel at Portland State University for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. The 2015 Vikings made their first appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs in 15 years.

He began his college athletics career in 2007 at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High school in Parkland, Fla., as an assistant football coach. He was the team's defensive coordinator, special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Thienes spent the 2008 through 2010 seasons at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa as an assistant football coach and strength and conditioning coordinator. Ellsworth won the 2008 and 2009 NJCAA Region XI Championships and Graphic Edge Bowls.

During the 2011 through 2013 seasons, he was a graduate assistant for the Boise State football program. He worked with the defensive backs and had various special teams responsibilities. The Broncos were the 2012 Mountain West champions, won bowl games in two of his three seasons and compiled an overall 31-8 win-loss record.

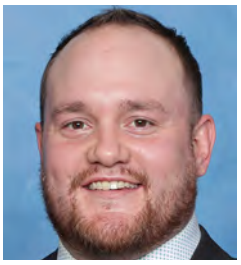
Thienes was at the University of Washington as a graduate assistant in 2014. He worked with the linebackers and special teams players. The Huskies finished their season playing in the Cactus Bowl.

The 2008 Boise State University graduate majored in psychology. He earned a master's degree in kinesiology & behavioral studies from Boise State in 2013.

Ben and his wife, Tobruk, have two daughters, Landyn and Colby.

TANNER Schultheis

Director of Football Operations



Tanner Schultheis was named San José State University's director of football operations in December 2020.

Schultheis came to the Spartans after two seasons as director of football operations at Samford University.

The 2013 Ohio University graduate majored in sports administration and has worked his entire professional career in college football operations. His first assignment was as a recruiting and operations assistant at the University of Akron in 2014. He served as the director of football operations and assistant recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris University during the 2014 through 2016 seasons.

Before joining Samford University, Schultheis worked for USA Football as the national team's operations manager in 2017 and 2018.

At San José State, Schultheis will collaborate with Ben Thienes, the assistant athletics director for football operations, in the daily activities of the Spartans' football program.

TOBRUK BLAINE

Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development/Beyond Football Coordinator

Tobruk Blaine joined the San Jose State University football staff in July 2017 as the program's first Beyond Football Coordinator. In June 2021, she was promoted to the new position of Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development.

As the Beyond Football Coordinator, she is responsible for enhancing the lives of football student-athletes. The program's success led to taking its concepts department-wide to Beyond Sparta serving more than 450 student-athletes who are encouraged to explore what is around them, identify interests, and inspire themselves and others through a culture of volunteerism in a greater community. Student-athletes will develop career-focused proficiencies and cultivate knowledge, relationships and skills necessary to establish a successful personal and professional life beyond the game of football.

Blaine came to San Jose State with a background in coaching, teaching, fund raising and program building. She was a high school and college cheerleading coach at Eagle and Rocky Mountain High Schools in Idaho and at Boise State University. Her high school teams won the Idaho 5A state cheerleading championships twice for Eagle High (2005, 2006 and 2008) and twice for Meridian's Rocky Mountain High (2010). The 2016 and 2017 Boise State teams were named the United Spirit Association's (USA) national champion in the Division I Small Coed cheerleading category. Blaine was named the 2006 state of Idaho Cheerleading Coach of the Year for leading Eagle High to its championship.

While coaching at Eagle and Rocky Mountain High, she was a health sciences teacher. Her teaching style and philosophy was geared to students better understanding and aligning their approach to state and national health education standards. She developed effective student-teacher programs and lesson plans for students to meet and exceed the state and national standards. In 2012, she was one of 18 teachers from the state of Idaho honored at Boise State University's annual Barbara Morgan Mentor of the Year Awards program.

An effective fund raiser for the Boise State spirit squad program, she annually raised more than double the program's annual operating budget to support the university's cheerleading, dance and mascot's program activities.

The 2002 Oregon State University graduate majored in health promotion and education. She has master's degrees in health education from Oregon State and educational leadership from the University of Idaho.

She holds certifications from the American Association of Cheerleading Coaches and Administrators and the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS). Blaine is certified by the American Red Cross in first aid and CPR.

She and her husband, Ben, have two daughters, Landyn and Colby.

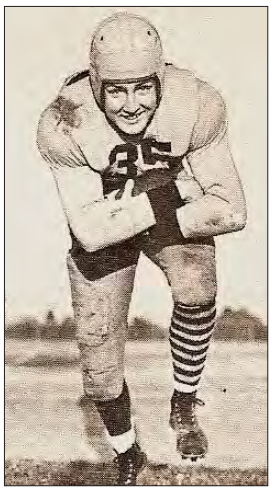
SAN JOSE STATE FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

ALL-AMERICAS

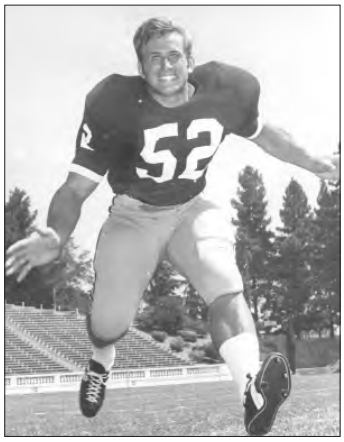
Lloyd Thomas is the first San José State University football player to receive first-team All-America honors. The Spartan played as an end on the 1936, 1937 and 1938 teams that had a combined record of 27-7-1. He was an Associated Press Little All-America as a senior in 1938, one of the organization's first black All-America football players. Thomas also was a three-time letterwinner in basketball at San José State.

Lloyd Thomas, E
1938 A.P. 1st team



Leroy Zimmerman, FB
1939 A.P. 1st team

Leroy Zimmerman was a small college Associated Press first-team All-America back in 1939 – San José State University's first undefeated and untied season. The Spartans were 13-0 outscoring their opponents, 324-29. Zimmerman was the team's rushing leader, most proficient passer, led the team with eight interceptions and in scoring, and averaged 40.6 yards a punt. He was the first San José State player selected in a NFL draft when the Washington Redskins made him the 58th overall pick in 1940. He would go on to play nine seasons for five NFL teams.



Dave Chaney, LB
1970 U.P.I. 2nd team
1971 A.P. 1st team
1971 NEA 1st team

Charles Pauley, Returns
2002 collegefootballnews.com 1st team
2002 A.P. 3rd team

Dwight Lowery, CB
2006 AFCA 1st team
2006 FWAA 1st team
2006 A.P. 3rd team
2007 AFCA 1st team

Dave Chaney was a two-time All-America linebacker. A United Press International second-team All-America as a junior in 1970, Chaney became the Spartans first major college first-team All-America when he was named to the Associated Press and Newspaper Enterprise Association 1971 teams. His greatest single-game performance was in the Spartans' 13-12 upset win over eventual Rose Bowl champion Stanford on November 13, 1971. Chaney was credited with 17 tackles, two fumble recoveries and intercepted a pass. His jersey number 52 was the first to be retired at San José State. After his college football career, he became a very successful high school tennis coach in Central California.

Charles Pauley was the NCAA Division I-A kickoff return leader in 2002 averaging a San José State single-season school 31.6 yards per return. The collegefootballnews.com first team and Associated Press third-team All-America returned kickoffs of 98 yards against UTEP and 97 yards at Stanford for touchdowns his senior season. Pauley was one of the most versatile players to wear a Spartan uniform. He played wide receiver, returned punts and kickoffs, gained yardage running the football and passed for four touchdowns in his two-year San Jose State career. As a junior in 2001, Pauley set a San Jose State single-game record of 355 all-purpose yards in a 64-45 win over Nevada. On the school's career list, he still ranks sixth for all-purpose running yardage and second in kickoff return average.

Dwight Lowery is San José State University's only player with multiple first team All-America honors. In 2006, Lowery's school record nine interceptions tied for the nation's most and played a major role in the team's 9-4 win-loss record and New Mexico Bowl victory. He became the first San Jose State player to receive American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) All-America honors. Lowery repeated as an AFCA All-America in 2007. The New York Jets selected Lowery in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL draft. He played for the Jets, Jacksonville Jaguars, Atlanta Falcons, Indianapolis Colts and San Diego Chargers.

SPARTAN STADIUM RING OF HONOR

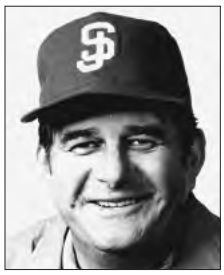
Bill Walsh (right) won post-season games at the college level and in the NFL.

Gerald Willhite (right) was one of the nation' best all-purpose tailbacks in the 1980s.

Steve DeBerg (right) was a NFL quarterback for 17 seasons.

Dick Vermeil coached the Philadelphia Eagles and the St. Louis Rams to the Super Bowl.

Bob Bronzan is the only known coach to have coached two Super Bowl-winning coaches – Bill Walsh and Dick Vermeil.



Jack Elway was the first coach to lead the Spartans to wins over Stanford and California in the same season.

John Ralston is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Claude Gilbert (left) is the only football player to earn a varsity letter, and serve San José State as team captain, assistant coach and head coach.

Did You Know?

San José State was scheduled to play two games in Hawaii to end the 1941 season. The Spartans were in Honolulu when the attack on Pearl Harbor occurred on December 7, 1941. Many players immediately joined the local police force or the armed services. The games against the University of Hawai'i on December 13 and Willamette College of Oregon on December 16 were canceled.

Did You Know?

In 1981 and 1987, San José State was the "mythical champion" of the San Francisco Bay Area. The Spartans defeated both California and Stanford in those two seasons.

The San José State University football team plays its home games in CEFCU Stadium. Built in 1933, the stadium was known as Spartan Stadium until CEFCU entered into a 15-year naming rights with the University in 2016.

The Spartans won the first football game played in the stadium, 44-0, over San Francisco State, on October 7, 1933. Since then, the Spartans have played 402 games over 82 seasons. The team's 100th win in the stadium came on October 21, 1967, against New Mexico, 52-14. The 200th victory occurred in 2005. SJSU's home field record is 246-153-17 at the end of 2020.

This season, CEFCU Stadium is in the midst of a massive change to its wast side in preparation for the construction of an operations center scheduled to be completed in 2023. Seating on the east side was removed in 2019. Two stadium expansions and renovations in the 1980's increased the seating capacity from 18,000 to over 30,000.

A FieldTurf surface replaced natural grass in 2009. The original FieldTurf surface was removed in May 2017 for a new AstroTurf surface. A new videoboard/scoreboard in the north end zone was installed in the summer of 2020 to complement the videoboard in the south end zone installed in 2011.

The university's commencement, concerts, professional and collegiate soccer, religious convocations, band competitions and high school football games have taken place at CEFCU Stadium.

Five Silicon Valley Football Classics were held in CEFCU Stadium. Air Force in 2000, Michigan State in 2001, Fresno State in 2002, UCLA in 2003 and Northern Illinois in 2004 were bowl-game winners. The 1999 Women's World Cup and 1999 NCAA Women's College Cup soccer events attracted record-setting crowds.

The largest attendance at a home football game was a 31,681 sellout crowd at the 2003 win over Grambling State. The game marked the first time under the current stadium configuration that San José State had a "sellout" prior to game day.

The largest crowd to attend any event in the stadium was estimated at 37,000 for a ZZ Top music concert.
